For Action

NYCC Model pay policy 2017/18

Audience: all schools

NYCC model pay policy 2017/18, associated guidance and covering letter is now available here under the Useful Documents - Pay Policies and Supporting Documents section. Please carefully read the covering letter as it includes important information regarding the adoption of the model pay policy this year. However, NYCC's position regarding whether or not a recommended main pay range will continue to be published will be determined following analysis of the survey results and following further consultation with Professional Associations. If you have not already completed the survey, we have extended the deadline following discussion with schools to 15 September 2017 at 12 noon. So far the results do not indicate a majority preference so we strongly encourage you to complete the survey in order to influence our approach. It can be found here
