CYPS Headteacher Briefing

This is a whole day event comprising of a workshop session and the termly CYPS briefing.

Outline

A follow up interactive workshop providing further opportunities for headteachers and CEOs to work with CYPS managers from children and families, inclusion and education services to work together on shared issues.

Description

Morning: The morning session will build on build on the previous workshops in September. The LA will share the actions being taken in response to the current focus on SEND and inclusion and will invite the views of school leaders in the development of next steps. This session offers time for dialogue between school leaders and LA officers on this important shared agenda.

Afternoon: The CYPS briefing will include updates from across the range of council services and will be relevant to leaders of schools and academies across North Yorkshire.
