North Yorkshire Youth Commission offer

As part of Hate Crime Awareness Week, the Youth Commission is offering its Big Conversation workshops to schools, colleges, youth groups and other young people's organisations. The Big Conversation is interactive, educational, and gives young people the opportunity to share their views and opinions on key police & crime topics. One-hour workshops on Discrimination and on Gender Violence & Safer streets can be booked by contacting Emily Blavins emily@leaders-unlocked.org

North Yorkshire Youth: Wake-Up Call is free and available to 24 Secondary schools across North Yorkshire and York. Wake-Up Call looks at pre-Prevent work with young people at risk of being radicalised, committing a hate crime or showing negative racial behaviour. The purpose of Wake-Up Call is to develop a counter narrative in young people so they feel more equipped at challenging hate crime and also become ambassadors within their schools. See below as an example of what positive outcomes can be achieved through this course: <http://www.risedale.org.uk/Pages/Wake-Up-Call.aspx>

If you would like to access this course or know more about it please contact Clare Yates, Delivery Manager, North Yorkshire Youth on clare@nyy.org.uk
