

Educational Psychology and Early Years Service

September 2018 - August 2019

Early Years SENCo Training

Outline

- A two day course
- Description of the role and responsibilities of a Special Educational Needs Coordinator (SENCo)
- Current Legislation
- Procedures

Description

The course is presented by two Early Years Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) specialists with some practical activities and video clips to help meet the course aims. There will be examples of resources available to look at whilst you are there. There will be some opportunities to ask questions about how the course applies to the needs of children in your setting. This course will be suitable for new Special Educational Needs Coordinators (SENCo) those planning to become SENCo and experienced SENCos wishing to refresh their knowledge and skills.

Aims

To gain a better understanding and develop your skills in:

- What the SENCo role entails
- What is required by current legislation?
- Which procedures to follow
- How to work with parents and other professionals
- How to set targets
- How to hold reviews

Early Years SENCo Network

Outline

- A half day course
- Current legislation and procedures
- Access to relevant resources
- Practical skills in meeting the needs of children with SEND
- Latest news and practice

Description

This course is intended for SENCos or staff who may become SENCos in all Early Years settings including childminders. School SENCos who would like to keep up-to-date on Early Years Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) are also warmly welcomed.

Each term the latest news and issues related to SEND are discussed. Specialist speakers are invited to share what they can offer or to talk about new research or developments in SEND. In some sessions practical workshops are offered around meeting the needs of children with SEND. The networks offer a good opportunity for SENCos to talk together and share good practice and issues which they have encountered within their role.

Outcomes

As a result of attending, delegates should:

- understand how to make best provision in early years settings and schools for pupils with SEND, in line with latest legislation and practice
- have ongoing understanding of the strategic role of the SENCo and feel empowered to share this information back in their settings
- have access to relevant resources and to a wider network of Local Authority and peer practitioner support across the local area
- increase their practical skills in meeting the needs of children with SEND
