

Course Code: SI-0619-T054

Introducing the new Religious Education Agreed Syllabus

Maintained schools: £130 per delegate

Academies and independent schools: £230 for 1st delegate (to include the syllabus) , £130 for further delegates

Date: Monday June 10th 2019

Venue: Cedar Court Hotel, Harrogate

A balance of practical ideas and inspiration

- Planning great RE: Intention, implementation, impact
- Achieving more in RE with outcomes-led assessment
- Spiritual and Moral Development + British Values
- Developing questioning for deeper learning
- Making progress in RE

Why do you need this CPD day?

This one-day conference will introduce teachers to the new North Yorkshire SACRE Agreed Syllabus for RE. It will focus on practical classroom ideas and strategies, enabling teachers to get to grips with the new syllabus and find out how to apply and use it successfully in their schools. It will be led by Lat Blaylock and members of the RE Today Adviser Team, who have written the syllabus. They have a wide national reputation for practicality and excellence in RE CPD. Delegates will receive their school copy of the new syllabus, and all supporting digital materials will be explained. The new OFSTED approach of 'intent, implement, impact' will be referenced. Cost inclusive of refreshments and lunch.

Programme for the day

From 8.45 am	Registration, refreshments and market place
9.30 am	Intentions of RE: Planning great RE using the new syllabus This session will consider the place and value of RE for pupils, highlighting the developments and opportunities in the new syllabus. It will demonstrate how to use the syllabus to plan and teach engaging, thoughtful RE
11.00 am	Break – refreshments
11.30 am	Implementing good RE: Excellent teaching and learning This session will offer six high quality teaching and learning ideas, based on the syllabus, to deepen pupils' understanding and skills, and explore spiritual and moral development and British Values through RE.
1.15 pm	Lunch
2.00 pm	The impact of RE: Achieving more in RE This session will look at setting high standards with the new syllabus and explain methods of assessment and provide examples of ways to enable pupils to make good progress in RE using the learning outcomes of our new syllabus.
3.30 pm	Evaluation and close

On the day, you will receive a hard copy of the syllabus, plus 3 exemplar units of work. Copies of all resources will be available to take away and electronic copies of all resources will be available to download. A full set of units of work to support the syllabus will be available to order at a reduced rate on the day. Other resources will be available to purchase/order at the conference.

Who is it for?

The conference is aimed at teachers of RE from primary and secondary schools of all types, including subject leaders, head teacher and interested governors or other stakeholders. HLTAs who teach RE are very welcome.

Aims

- To introduce the new Agreed Syllabus for RE: it is up to date, uses the current EYFS, National Curriculum style, with increased flexibility and extra support for planning RE, assessment after levels, British Values work and SMSCD
- To provide practical strategies, guidance and resources for teachers and in planning creative, challenging, thoughtful RE to promote the personal development of pupils
- To inspire teachers and help them to develop their confidence in planning and delivering RE, whether in the context of cross-curriculum themes, RE days or discrete RE lessons.
- To model examples of thoughtful RE, challenging all pupils and promoting deeper thinking.

Book your places now.

This event may be oversubscribed. Early booking is recommended.

To book your place(s), please book through the NYES website:

www.nyeducationsservices.co.uk Course code SI-0619-T054