Healthy Early Years Award - Sharing Good Practice to improve the Health and Wellbeing of children in your setting

Healthy Early Years Award - Sharing Good Practice to improve the Health and Wellbeing of children in your setting

Free to all North Yorkshire Early Years Settings

Outline

Informal network for colleagues who work in Early Years Settings to come together to learn, share and discuss good practice around health and wellbeing. Also an opportunity to listen to an Early Years Practitioners experience of achieving a Healthy Early Years Award and the positive contribution it played in getting ready for an inspection.

The network will be facilitated by the North Yorkshire Healthy Early Year co-ordinators (Settings can be at any point on the Healthy Early Years Award journey e.g. just starting out, achieving or achieved).

Description

- Opportunity for Early Years settings to learn about different practice and approaches in relation to the four themes of the North Yorkshire Healthy Early Years Award
- Opportunity to listen to an Early Years Practitioners experience of achieving a Healthy Early Years Award and the positive contribution it played in getting ready for an inspection.
- Opportunity to share good practice and discuss what support and further information is needed around health and wellbeing

Outcome

Delegates will have had an opportunity to listen to input on effective practice and provision to support Early Years Settings achieve a Healthy Early Years Award and to discuss health and wellbeing aspects in their setting.
