Di Chilvers

Advisory consultant in early childhood education, Early Education Associate and Birth to Five Matters lead for the Observation, Assessment and Planning working party

This meeting is an opportunity to delve into the Birth to 5 Matters guidance and find out how it can support your pedagogy and practice with young children. Di will introduce the guidance and pick out some of the key aspects, particularly using Birth to 5 Matters to support children's development and learning and how observation, assessment and planning shapes your curriculum. There will be time for questions and discussion.
