

Dingley's Promise

How to Sign Up

Dingley's Promise Training

- Designed for Early Years Practitioners but some are useful for parents too
- Free to anyone living/ working in North Yorkshire.
- If a parent living outside of North Yorks can use a NYC setting/ school postcode to register.
- Short Courses - Dingley's Promise
 - Introduction to Early Years Inclusive Practice
 - Early Years SEND Transitions
 - Behaviours that Challenge
 - The Voice of the Child
 - Having Difficult Conversations with Families
 - Intersections within Early years
 - Leadership and Management for Inclusion
- Resources for Local Authorities - Dingley's Promise
- We always ensure we signpost Your Family Toolkit and Solihull parenting

How to sign up to Dingley's Promise

- Training - Dingley's Promise
- From the Menu: Click on Short Courses. You will then see this box.
Click on Training Finder

In some areas of England our training is funded by the Department for Education, local authorities and other SEND partners. Before purchasing, please visit our Training Finder to see if you are eligible for funded courses in your area.

You will see this:

Select North Yorkshire from the drop down box and click search

Dingley's Promise Training Finder by Location

In some areas of England our training is funded by the Department for Education, local authorities and other SEND partners.

Please note, funded training is not currently available outside of England.*

Enter your local authority area below to check for funded courses in your area

Please select your local authority ▼

Search

Click on the access these courses. You will then be able to sign up

Terms & conditions

- To be eligible you must work within the stated local authority area
- Eligibility will be checked during the learner sign up process
- Dingley's Promise reserve the right to withdraw access to courses or payment for any funded courses access without the correct eligibility

Access these courses by clicking here to sign up