

Curriculum Conversations

For RE teachers in Yorkshire

Regional conversation An opportunity to reflect on what we have learnt so far

Thursday 24th June 4.15pm. To book a place: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/145747969099>

Coming in the Autumn term...

Secondary Stream

Further details of workshops overleaf

Session title and date

To book

From conversation to implementation: constructing an RE curriculum

Ben Wood

Tuesday 28th September 2021 4.15pm

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/148599393787>

Engaging in research in the secondary RE classroom

Kathryn Wright

Thursday 7th October 2021 4.15pm

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/148599867203>

Developing a coherent curriculum for GCSE

Rachael Jackson-Royal

Wednesday 24th November 2021 5pm

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/162801711301>

Diversity in Islam, Shia Islam: An alternative narrative

Zameer Hussain

Thursday 18th November 2021 4.15pm

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/148600711729>

REvolutionary RE

Ashish Kundi

Tuesday 14th December 2021 4.15pm

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/148601331583>

Authentic and rich teaching of Hinduism

Ashish Kundi

Tuesday 18th January 2022 4.15pm

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/148602236289>

Developing a coherent curriculum for A-level

Rachael Jackson-Royal

Monday 7th February 2022 5pm

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/162802361245>

Events will take place via Zoom. Sessions are limited to 75 places and places are prioritised for teachers in Yorkshire

For any queries or further information please contact Olivia Seymour Olivia@natre.org.uk

Curriculum Conversations

For RE teachers in Yorkshire

Secondary Stream

From conversation to implementation: constructing an RE curriculum

Ben Wood

Tuesday 28th September 2021 4.15pm

In this session, we will consider the practical steps involved in building an RE curriculum, starting with the initial thoughts and conversations, and moving through to the classroom. The aim is to increase teacher confidence and agency in this vital process.

Engaging in research in the secondary RE classroom

Kathryn Wright

Thursday 7th October 2021 4.15pm

In this workshop we will explore the importance of research in developing an ambitious curriculum for the subject. We will look at some current research relating to RE and how it can be applied to classroom practice. We will discuss the value of connecting researchers with teachers through knowledge exchange and consider ways in which teachers can actively engage with and in research.

Developing a coherent curriculum for GCSE

Rachael Jackson-Royal

Wednesday 24th November 2021 5pm

This session will look at ways in which you can organise the teaching of your GCSE to help students deepen their knowledge of the subject content whilst also supporting their development of the necessary skills applicable to the examination. It will draw upon sound pedagogical principles of learning and years of successfully delivering GCSE RS in schools. There will also be an opportunity to explore ways in which you can stretch and challenge pupils in order to enrich their learning experience.

Diversity in Islam, Shia Islam: An alternative narrative

Zameer Hussain

Thursday 18th November 2021 4.15pm

A session that will focus on the Shia narrative of Islam, equipping delegates with powerful subject knowledge for the classroom and their Islam curriculums. There will be focus on insider knowledge of Shia identity, Shia experience and what the Shia worldview is through discussing key beliefs and teachings. Delegates will also be able to ask any questions to a Shia Muslim to clarify any misconceptions and enhance subject knowledge.

REvolutionary RE

Ashish Kundi

Tuesday 14th December 2021 4.15pm

This anti-racism workshop focuses on the decolonisation of the curriculum to provide authentic content, leading to deeper understanding and increased empathy. This session will outline what it means to be anti-racist and how this links to the decolonisation of the curriculum and the best ways to apply this in the classroom, in order to allow young people to be their most authentic selves.

Authentic and rich teaching of Hinduism

Ashish Kundi

Tuesday 18th January 2022 4.15pm

This workshop will address some of the misconceptions about Sanatan Dharma (Hinduism) and how to work to overcome these misconceptions. A focus on the decolonisation of the topic to present it at its most authentic. Looking at the diversity of Sanatan thought and how a focus on authenticity can deepen understanding.

Developing a coherent curriculum for A- level

Rachael Jackson-Royal

Monday 7th February 2022 5pm

This session will look at ways in which you can organise the teaching of your A-Level to help students deepen their knowledge of the subject content whilst also supporting their development of the necessary skills applicable to the examination. It will draw upon sound pedagogical principles of learning and years of successfully delivering A-Level RS in schools. There will also be an opportunity to explore ways in which you can stretch and challenge pupils in order to enrich their learning experience.

Events will take place via Zoom. Sessions are limited to 75 places and places are prioritised for teachers in Yorkshire