

Online Teacher Summer School

Sunday 25 July to Friday 30 July 2021

Our Online Teacher Summer School aims to extend historical knowledge, and/or to explore some of the pedagogical challenges of teaching and learning about the Holocaust.

All sessions are free to attend and open to anyone who has previously undertaken an introductory teacher training workshop with the Holocaust Educational Trust.* We particularly welcome registration from participants of our Lessons from Auschwitz Online CPD.

Join us as we deepen our discussions about the definition of the Holocaust through an exploration of the persecution of Jewish communities of French North Africa, and workshops exploring the Mosaic of Victims. Two additional study workshops will explore the topics of antisemitism, and post-war justice. For primary colleagues, we will be hosting a two-part online CPD including an opportunity to hear a survivor testimony.

All sessions will take place on Zoom. To register for your free place, email TeacherCPD@het.org.uk.

More information on these sessions can be found on our website: www.het.org.uk.

*Introductory training workshops will be taking place on Tuesday 13 July (11:00-12:30), Thursday 15 July (16:00-17:00), Wednesday 21 July (16:00-17:00).

Jewish Communities of French North Africa

Sunday 25 July (09:30-12:30)

In partnership with Yad Vashem's International School for Holocaust Studies and the Documentation Centre of North-African Jewry during World War II, this seminar will provide teachers with an opportunity to learn about the plight of Jewish communities living in French North Africa during the Second World War.

Online CPD for Primary School Teachers

Monday 26 July (14.30-16.30), Tuesday 27 July (10:00-14:00)

To complement our Lessons from Auschwitz Online CPD for secondary school teachers, we will be hosting a two-part CPD programme for primary school teachers and trainees. These sessions are open to primary school teachers and trainees from across the UK.

The Mosaic of Victims

Tuesday 27 July (15:00-17:00) and Wednesday 28 July (09:00-17:30)

In connection with the 85-year commemorations of the 1936 Berlin Olympic Games, and the creation of the Berlin-Marzahn camp for Roma, join us as we explore the diverse experiences of different groups of people who were persecuted by the Nazi regime and its collaborators during the era of the Third Reich.

Exploring Antisemitism

Thursday 29 July (09.30-16.00)

Join us for a day of workshops exploring the history of antisemitism, including discussions about how to identify and challenge antisemitism in your classroom.

Justice after the Holocaust: Remembering the Children with Maison d'Izieu

Friday 30 July

On 4 July 1987, Klaus Barbie was found guilty of crimes against humanity, and sentenced to life in prison, the maximum penalty permitted under French law. Barbie's crimes included the arrest and deportation to Auschwitz of forty-four children and seven carers, all of whom were Jewish, from the children's home of Izieu. This seminar will explore the history of the children's home, the long struggle for justice, and the continued commitment to remember.
