

Secondary NQTs Professional Development Days 2018

26th January & 27th February, 2018
Pavilions, Harrogate

A two day course for new teachers of all subjects.

Highly practical sessions on crucial aspects of teaching as an NQT, balancing expert input with a chance to share professional experiences and perspectives, and mixing reflection on theory with the development of useful practice.

For NQTs

- A chance to step back from the immediate pressures of school and to reenergise
- High quality CPD on essential aspects of teaching and learning
- A chance to network with other NQTs in the county

For schools

- An effective way to develop new teachers, and to enhance their NQT induction programme
- An injection of new practice and expertise for the school
- Valuable staff contact with a wider professional community

Secondary NQTs Professional Development Days 2018

- Myths and realities: sharing perspectives on the first year in post; keeping the real purposes of classrooms and teaching in sight
- Ensuring challenge: building a culture of high expectations; getting the best from students
- Marking and feedback: practical strategies for making marking and feedback both effective and manageable
- Language for learning: a range of very practical tools for keeping students challenged and for improving reading and writing across the curriculum
- Talk for learning: challenges and opportunities of talk in the classroom; strategies for making teacher questioning as effective as possible
- Developing professionally: the principles and challenges of ongoing professional development
