

Key Stage 2 writing & grammar: securing the standards

Falsgrave Centre, Scarborough, 9th January, 9.30am – 3.30pm
Ripon Spa Hotel, 23rd February, 9.30am – 30.30pm

Practical approaches to the teaching of writing and grammar

- Integrate the teaching of writing and grammar in a planned way
- Take away some highly effective ways to engage children as real writers
- Ensure that pupils produce strong evidence for assessment

This essential course for class teachers and school leaders will offer a range of immediately practical approaches to preparing pupils for the Key Stage 2 writing assessment, as well as for the grammar test. It will also suggest ways to ensure that children are developing as confident, independent writers, in a culture which values enjoyment.

The course will include:

- ✓ Engaging pupils as real writers
- ✓ Making effective use of editing and redrafting
- ✓ Maximising the impact of feedback and modelling
- ✓ Teaching grammar and writing together
- ✓ Creating strong evidence for assessment
