Alternative Provision Audit

Audience : All schools

As part of our review and development of the Alternative Provision offer across North Yorkshire we are undertaking an audit of schools current alternative education arrangements. The audit will be used to further develop the alternative provision directory, help us to support schools with quality assurance and procurement of provision as well as identify further opportunities to develop the range of provision in each locality. In September 2019 a revised Alternative Provision Directory will be launched. In response to feedback from schools the directory will have a locality focus, make it easier to identify the curriculum/accreditation offer of each provider as well as more basic information such as costs, location and age range. We are also implementing a framework of minimum standards around the safety and legality of provisions to ensure that only provision meeting these standards will be listed in the directory.

I would be grateful if the spreadsheet could be completed (<http://cyps.northyorks.gov.uk/red-bag-attachments>) and returned by secure email to Chris.Manton@northyorks.gov.uk (Chris.Manton@northyorks.gov.uk) by 3rd April 2019. If you require any further information or clarification, please contact Chris Manton on 01609 536 031.

DfE Workload Reduction Toolkit

DfE have recently published updates to the workload reduction toolkit (<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/reducing-workload-in-your-school>) in response to the recommendations of the Making Data Work report and comments and feedback provided by teachers and leaders across the country. We have been asked to draw these to your attention. Updates are:

- A new section on reducing workload when managing behaviour including a workshop, a one page handout and an example from Redbridge Community School.
- A new section to support governing boards and trustees to reduce workload including an example from Ongar Primary School.

We have also published new practice examples responding to teacher feedback which said they find such examples helpful:

Stage 1 – identifying the issues – examples from Anderton Park Primary School and Kensington Primary School. Stage 2 – Addressing the issues:

o Revised workshop on data management, updated to take account of the Making Data Work report

o managing change section: examples from King Charles I School and Witton Park Academy plus a video from Kensington Primary School.

o feedback and marking section: a new example from Godmanchester Community School o Revised advice 'Ways to reduce workload in your school(s)' including a new section on behaviour management Stage 3 – evaluating the impact: an 'evaluating outcomes' template from the Ascent Trust To support the promotion of the toolkit we would be grateful if you could circulate news of the updates as widely as possible and encourage your networks to look at them. Are you a mainstream secondary school? Do you want a chance to try out an innovative mental health approach? Would you like £1000 for your school and to lead the way in cutting-edge research?

The Anna Freud National Centre for Children and Families is recruiting mainstream secondary schools to take part in England's largest research trial of school-based mental health interventions, commissioned by the Department for Education.

Our Education for Wellbeing programme will work with over 370 schools to evaluate pioneering ways of supporting the mental wellbeing of pupils.

There are two research projects in the programme:

The Anna Freud Centre is now recruiting mainstream secondary schools to take part in the second wave of research, delivering the interventions next academic year (2019-2020). Schools allocated to an intervention delivered by school staff will receive free training from the Centre. All participating schools will be remunerated £1000.

The deadline for Expressions of Interest is 5th April 2019. Places will be allocated on a first come first served basis. If you have any questions or would like to find out more, please email EducationForWellbeing@annafreud.org (EducationForWellbeing@annafreud.org).

Healthy Choices Programme

Audience : All Secondary Schools

We are contacting you to inform you of a fantastic free lifestyle programme, Healthy Choices, which has been commissioned by North Yorkshire Public Health Team.

Healthy Choices is a component of the 5-19 Healthy Child Programme and offers a bespoke family focussed package of support for children and young people who are above a healthy weight. The programme is designed to be fun and interactive whilst helping families to identify small, realistic and sustainable changes to diet and levels of physical activity.

As a service we appreciate that addressing healthy weight with children and young people is a very sensitive issue, but we also know that schools provide a key opportunity to identify those children and young people that would benefit from our programme.

We would be very happy to meet either with you or attend a staff meeting to discuss the service further. You can download a referrer's guide, a referral form and copy of our poster here (<http://cyps.northyorks.gov.uk/healthy-choices-programme>) which we hope you will be able to display in your school and pass on to relevant families.
