Leadership and Equality & Diversity Courses

Yorkshire Leadership Community is offering a range of courses to help teachers and leaders take their next career steps, from those aspiring to their first leadership role to those who are aiming for Headship.

A number of our courses are also aiming to tackle equality and diversity issues in education. Many of these courses are fully funded through Equality and Diversity in Education, Lancashire and West Yorkshire, follow the course header links to our website to find out more and to download the registration forms.

Understanding your Leadership Style
Starting Monday 9th January 2019

This course is all about developing your leadership potential, including using the Myers Brigg Type Indicator (MBTI), the most widely used personality indicator in the world. You will explore a range a different profile as well as focussing on your own and your leadership and teamwork style.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher Internship for Women
Starting Tuesday 10th December 2019

This programme has been developed in partnership with E&D in Education Lancashire and West Yorkshire to tackle the enduring diversity challenges within the school leadership workforce.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher Internship for BME Leaders
Starting Monday 13th January 2020

Evidence shows that there are enduring diversity challenges within the school leadership workshop. This course has been designed to tackle these issues for black and minority ethnic leaders.

Women Leaders of Tomorrow
Starting Friday 17th January 2020

There is a continued lack of opportunities for aspiring women leaders to explore the challenges and barriers facing them and the benefial outcomes of such programmes delivered regionally and nationally.

Diverse Leaders of Tomorrow
Starting 24th January 2020

This programme is for BME leaders aspiring to their next stage of promoted leadership roles and has been developed to tackle equality and diversity challenges.