NYES School Improvement & Early Years

CYPS Headteacher Briefing

This course meeting aims to provide termly strategic updates on local and national issues and is intended for Headteachers and Principals

Outline

Providing further opportunities for headteachers and CEO's to receive information and updates from North Yorkshire Council's Children's and Young People's Service.

Description

The CYPS briefing will include updates from across the range of council services and will be relevant to leaders of schools and academies across North Yorkshire.

These are online sessions providing short general updates to schools as we did not want to delay however, we will be arranging a separate in person workshop with a focus on 'Belonging Matters' later in the term, early in the new year.
