Volunteer Panel Members Needed for North Yorkshire School Admission Appeals

Do you want to make a real difference in your community? We are looking for volunteer panel members to help ensure fairness and transparency in school admission appeals across North Yorkshire.

What does the role involve?

- Listening to cases presented by parents and schools.
- Considering evidence carefully and impartially.
- Making decisions as part of a panel in line with the School Admission Appeals Code.

What skills do you need?

- Good listening and communication skills.
- Ability to weigh evidence objectively.
- Commitment to fairness and confidentiality.

Training and Support Full training will be provided, and reasonable expenses will be reimbursed.

Time Commitment Appeals are held during the day Mon-Fri, throughout the year with a 'bulks' period between April and July, no weekends or school holidays.

Eligibility We are looking for mix of members with both educational and non-educational backgrounds.

Why volunteer?

- Play a vital role in supporting families and schools.
- Gain valuable experience in decision-making and governance.
- Contribute to your local community.
- Meet like-minded people who share your commitment to fairness and education.
