

Folly! in partnership with the National Trust

architectural design workshops and competition for 9-11 year olds across Yorkshire and the North East what does an architect do?

TASK - design a modern folly for Fountains Abbey and Studley Royal

47 architects

how does an architect design a building?

sketching ideas

drawing to scale

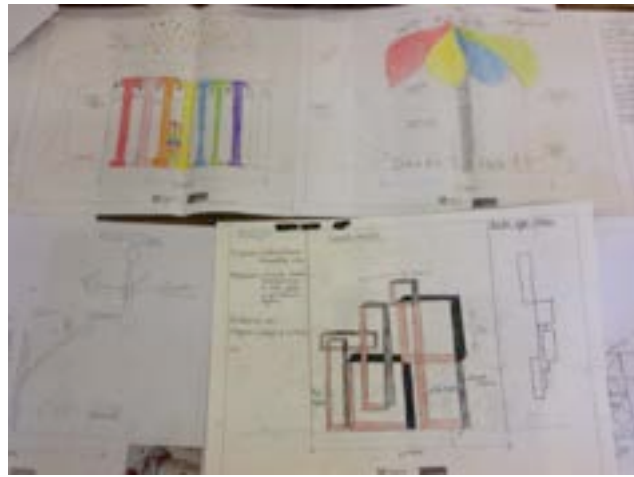

building models

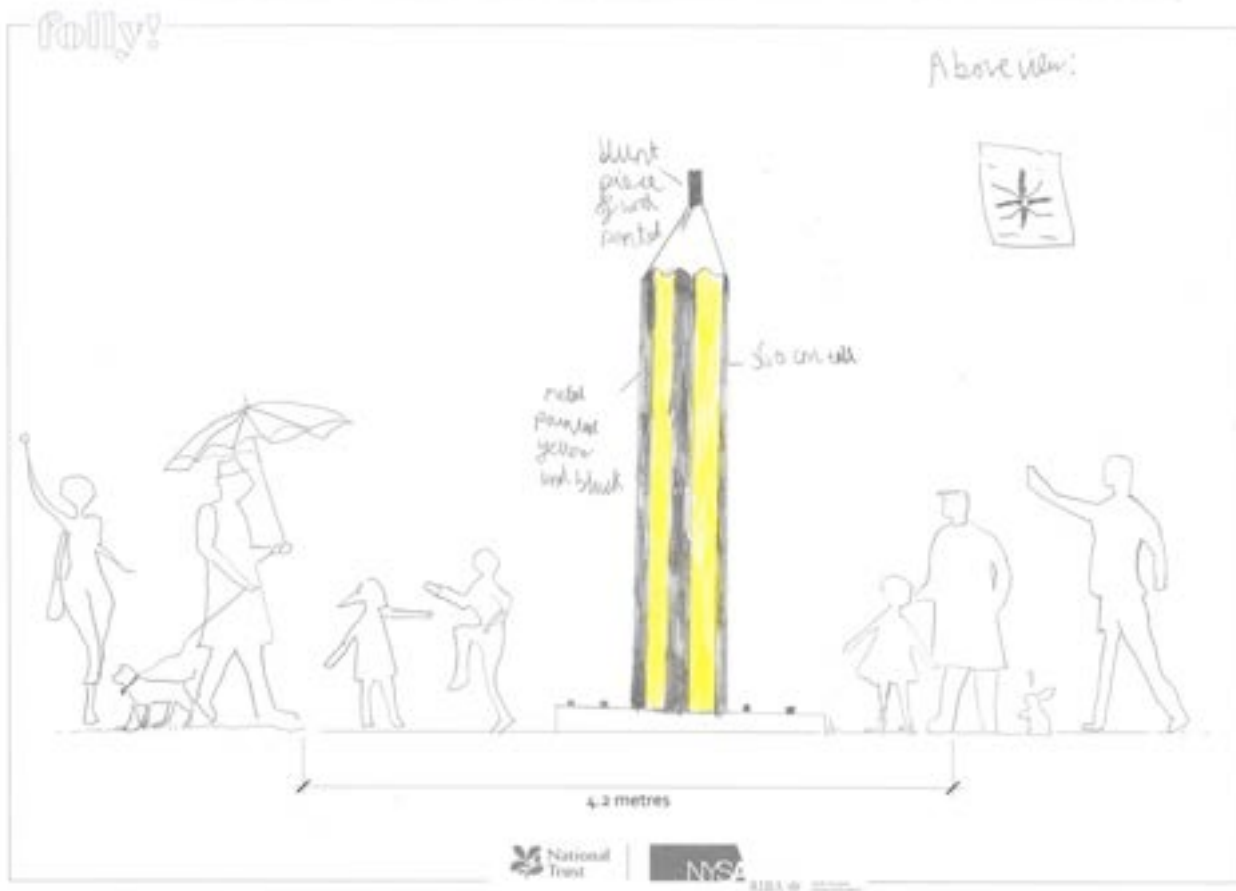

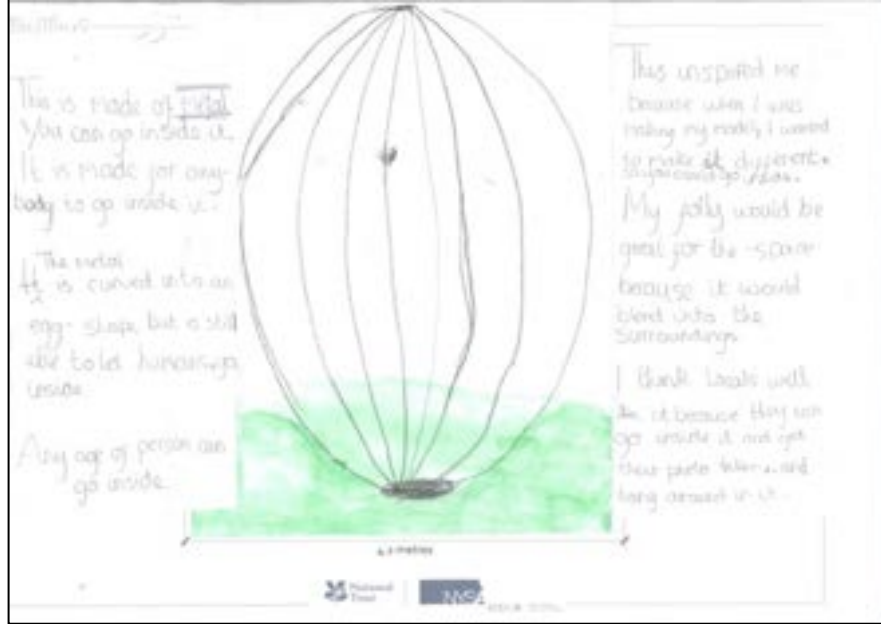

2500 children

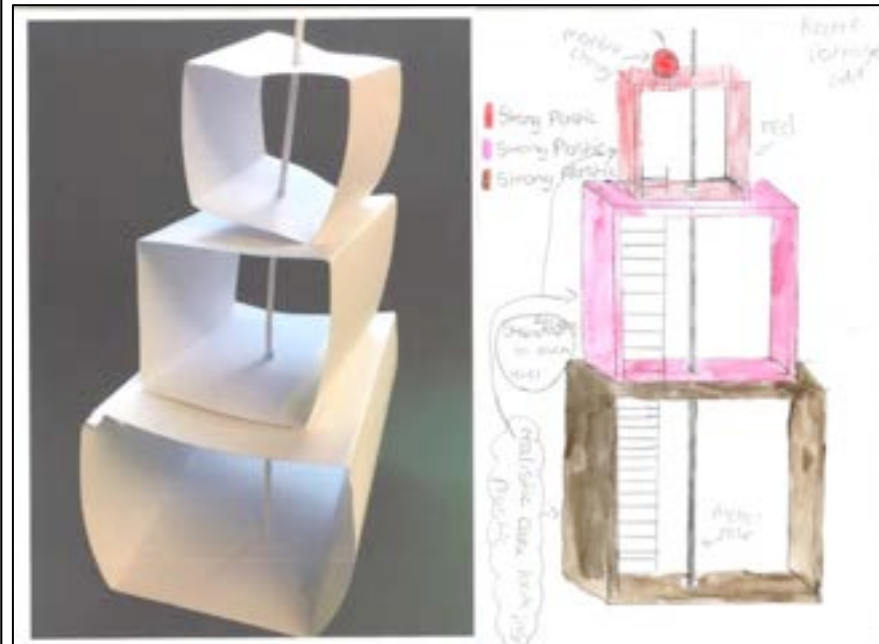

judging
1700
entries

highly commended

best models

use of colour

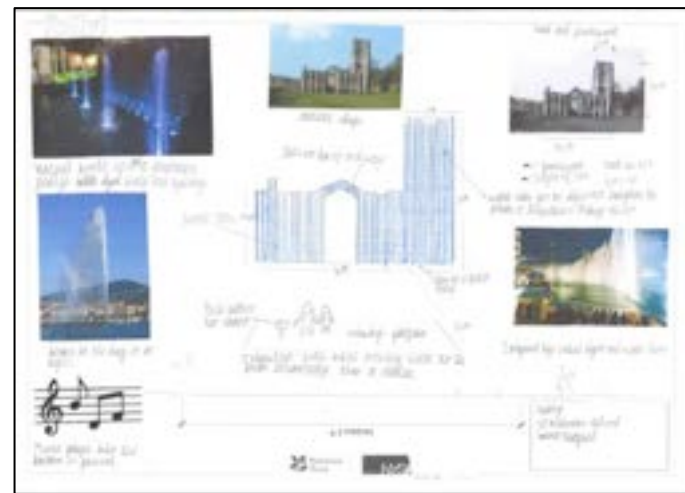

drawing prize

prize for research

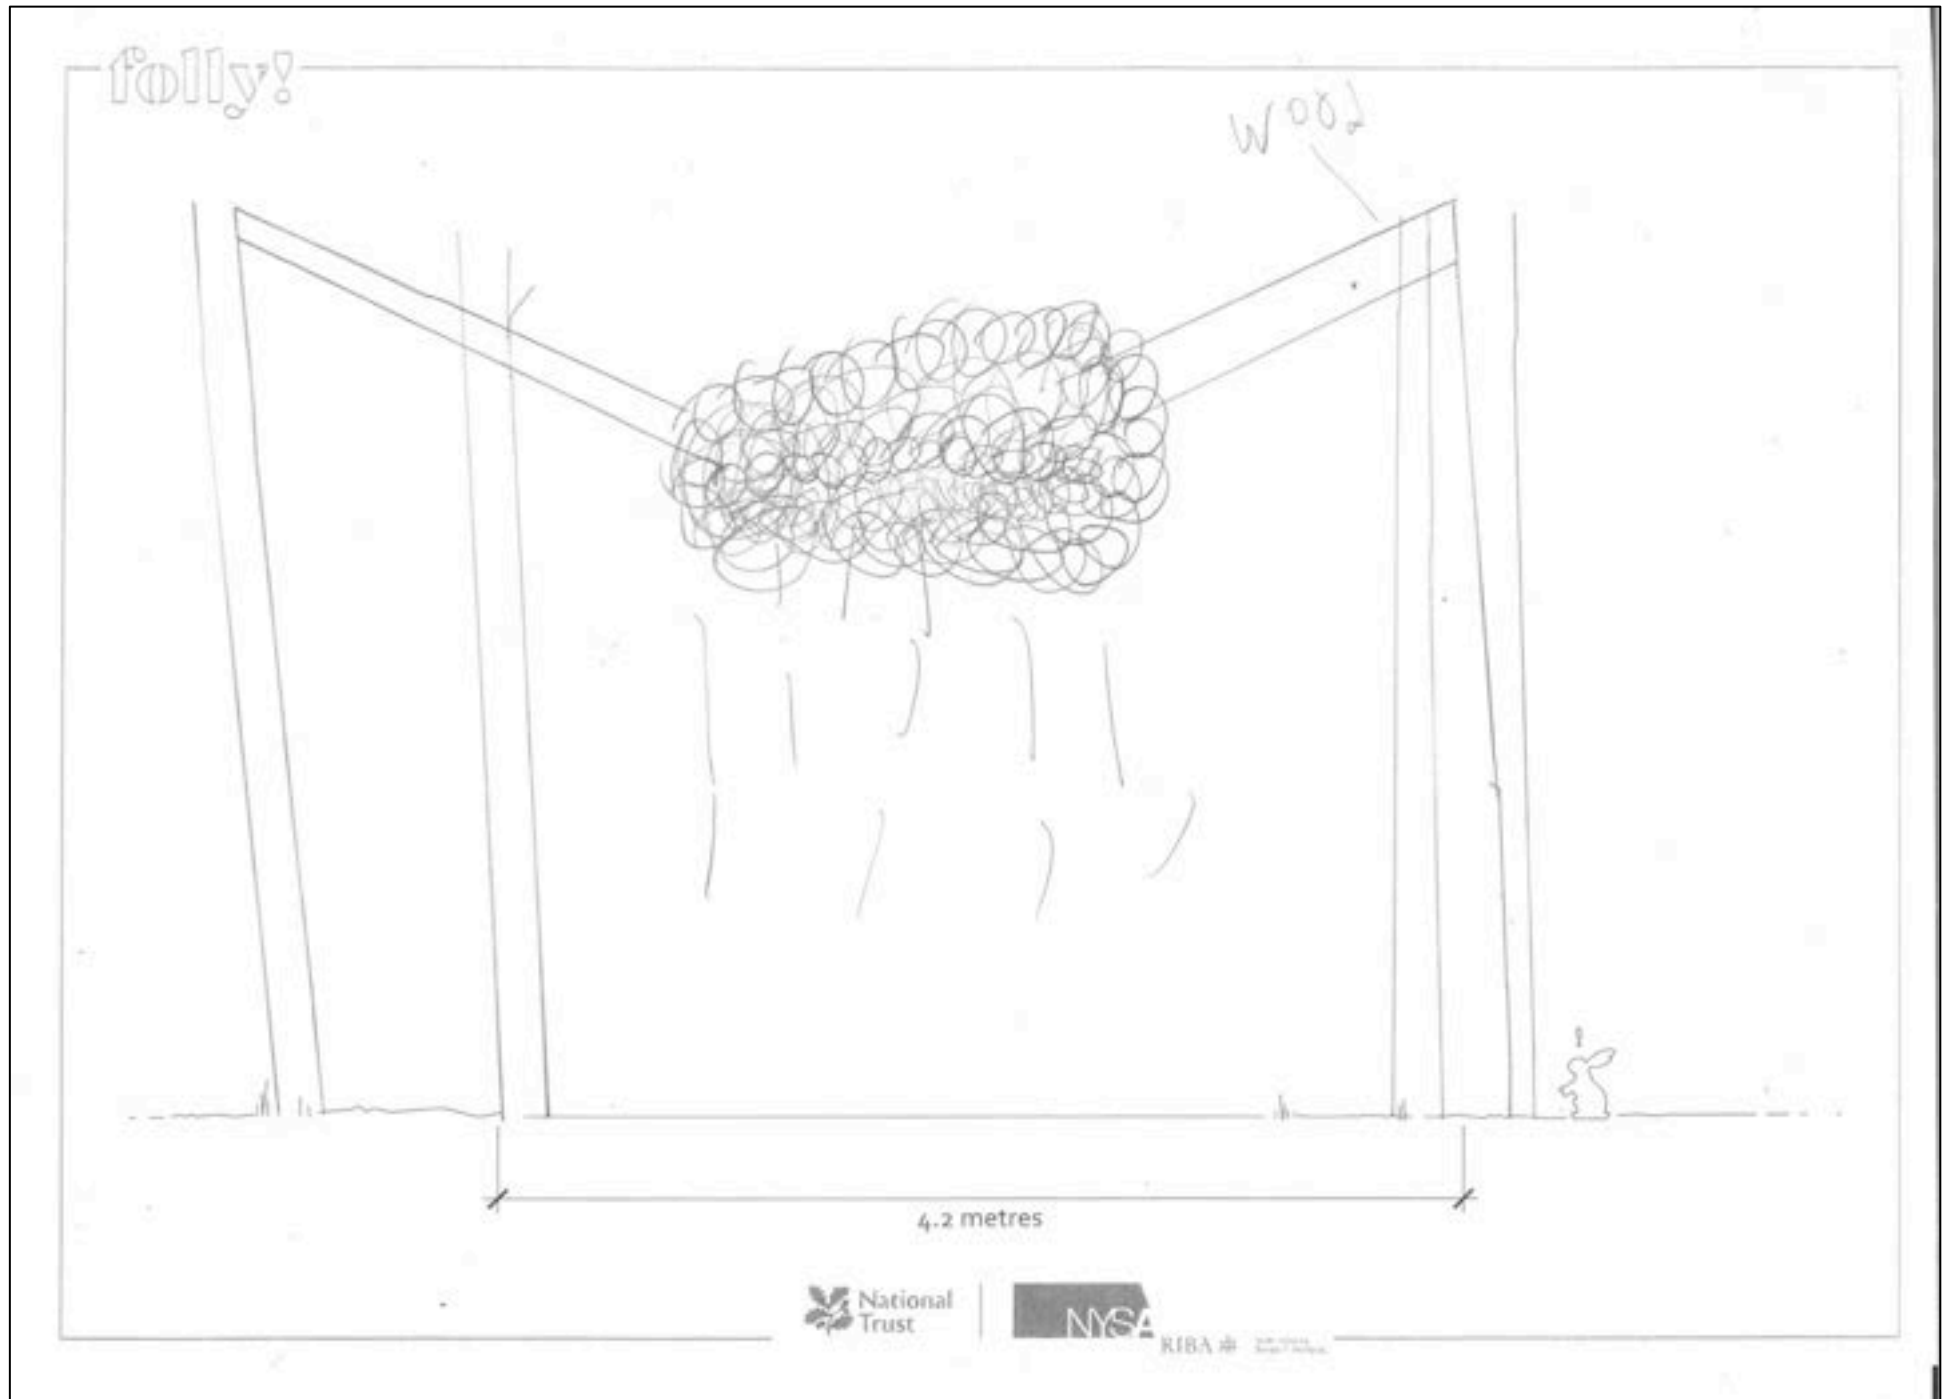

imaginative idea

special mentions

our winner - the cloud by foster carter

design process

reviewing the drawings

understanding the scale

moulding the cloud

flea folly architects

charles holland architects

4 contemporary follies in a historic setting

foster carter (aged 11)

lucy + jorge orta

A true celebration!

we brought together all our winners, teachers and architect volunteers to celebrate a fantastic project

